

January News

Mrs. Arsenault's Kindergarten Class

A Peek at January

Welcome to 2024! Over the next couple of weeks we will be learning about Martin Luther King Jr. and civil rights. Then we will be learning about snow. In math we will continue learning our numbers and more/less than and same amount. We will be continuing learning new words and writing personal stories. In reading we will learn how to conference and read decodable books.

Upcoming Events

White Pines- Monday, January 8th

Civil Rights Day- Monday, January 15th NO SCHOOL!!!

NO School-Teacher in Service Day Tuesday, January 16th

Work on at Home

- ❖ Writing last names
- ❖ Reciting and writing the alphabet
- ❖ Reading and writing words
- ❖ Counting to 100
- ❖ Tying shoes/boots and zipping their coats in a timely manner

Spreading Kindness

This month we will be discussing and learning about how people are different. We will learn ways to be kind and what kindness can look like in school and outside of school. We expose the kids to a brief history of civil rights movement. Have a great month!